

Crusader Walk Announcements

September 28, 2017

- Due to great participation in submitting address labels this year, over 2,000 letters were mailed this week to 48 states, D.C., Canada, and overseas military.
- Even though we haven't yet received any donations from the mailers, our online and family contributions have already put us over the $5,000 mark! Because of Terra Nova Testing next week, students will celebrate Crazy Socks & Shoes the week after—on Tuesday, October 10.
- Please note that open-toe sandals/shoes and high heels are not allowed for Crazy Socks & Shoes Day. Some examples of crazy shoes include cowboy or dress boots, Uggs, light-up shoes and Crocs. Students with P.E. on that day need to bring an appropriate change of shoes for class.
- The Crusader Walk is just 2 weeks from tomorrow! Please click here to sign up to help on Friday, October 13. Volunteers are needed to pop popcorn, assist with playground cleanup, and lead the Rosary. The schedule for the day is as follows:

9-10am: 5th/6th	1-2pm: 3rd/4th
10-11am: 7th/8th	2-3pm: K/1st/2nd
- We will likely reach $10,000 in donations by next week's announcement. Some suggestions for celebrating Emoji Day: 1) wear an emoji costume, t-shirt, tie, suspenders, socks, glasses or hat (get creative—print something from your computer or use duct tape); 2) use face paint to create an emoji look on your student. Please keep in mind that not all emojis are appropriate, including (but not limited to) the poop and middle finger.
