

Crusader Walk Announcements October 19, 2017

- We have surpassed $35,000 in donations, which means Crazy Hair Day is just around the corner. Mark your calendars for Friday, November 17, as students will get to show off their craziest hairdos yet!
- Emoji Day is next Monday, October 23rd. Don't know how to celebrate? Wear an emoji costume, t-shirt, tie, suspenders, socks, glasses or hat. Let your kiddos get creative—print something from your computer or use duct tape! Mrs. Redburn has also approved the use of face paint to create an emoji look on your child. Please keep in mind that not all emojis are appropriate, including (but not limited to) the poop and middle finger.
- We will have a Dress Down Day on Tuesday, October 31 (And, it's Halloween! 🎃). All proceeds will be added to the fundraiser total. For $1, students can dress down according to the handbook guidelines.
- Hawaiian Luau Day will be celebrated on Thursday, November 2. Some suggestions include Hawaiian shirts, shorts or skirts (of appropriate length), and grass skirts (over pants, shorts or skirts), leis, sun hats or sunglasses.
- Book Character Day will be celebrated on Monday, November 6. Students may dress as—or wear a t-shirt of—a book character. Please note that this is NOT a dress down day. If students don't participate, they must wear their uniforms. If a book character t-shirt is worn, it must be with uniform bottoms.
