

September 21 Notes from the Office:

1. Tomorrow is a Husker Day!
 2. We would like to invite all grandparents to attend Mass with their grandchildren at 8:15 AM on Tuesday, Sept. 26 (5-8th graders) or Wednesday, Sept. 27 (K-4th graders). There will be a special blessing for grandparents!
 3. Our 3rd-8th graders will be taking the Terra Nova tests during the week of October 2-6. For the most part, testing will take place in the morning, so please avoid scheduling appointments during the morning hours if possible. Your child's teacher will have a detailed schedule of testing times.
 4. The Moms of Faith are hosting an All Hallows Eve party on October 21! See the flyer for more details, and if you'd like to host a trunk, sign up here: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0545aead2da7fe3-allhallows1>
 5. The St. Columbkille Yearbook Cover Art contest deadline is next Friday, September 29. Remember that all entries must include St. Columbkille Catholic School and 2017-2018.
 6. There is a new button on the school website called STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES. Please check here for new and ongoing opportunities to serve. We're just starting to build this page, so check back often for updates.
 7. If you are interested in home renovations and are looking for a chance to serve the parish, contact Mr. Bill Hesse about how you can help renovate one of the parish properties. More information is available here.
